On the occasion of 20th of June, the Construction Workers' Day a solemn session of the Council of SGIP was held. Traditionally a meeting with the pensioners, former activists of SGIP who have contributed greatly to the development of the trade union movement in the Republic of Macedonia was also held.

In a tribute to the former trade union activists and the first strike of the construction workers in 1936, the representatives of SGIP laid fresh flowers at the monument in front of the Skopje City

Hospital.

This is an incentive, but also a pride for all our employees and union members to continue their activity in the achievements of workers' rights in our country.
