Joint effort of the social partners - government, employers and trade unions, as well as the organization "USAID" is the capacity development and social dialogue in local communities. Hence is the strong commitment and optimism for the formation of new local economic - social councils in the country.

This was stated on the conference "Local social dialogue in Macedonia - challenges and needs", which was held on June 12 in CCM, organized by the Federation of Trade Unions of Macedonia and "USAID".
